Art Unit: 3744

1. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

2. Claims 10-15 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Grumbly. Grumbly discloses a freezing machine having a dispense tap and a dosing machine 40, 42, 48, 50 for dosing flavorings as the frozen product is being dispensed from the tap.

3. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

4. Claim 16 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Grumbly in view of Fiedler. Grumbly discloses the claimed invention except for the recirculation loop. Fiedler teaches a freezing machine which includes a recirculation loop 56, 76, 78 connected to the dispense tap 64. It would be obvious to provide Grumbly with a recirculation loop at the dispense tap, in view of Fiedler, for the purpose of returning undispensed product to the freezer without wasting it.

5. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure.
